Boy: I want to hear it (takes stethoscope).

Adult: Well, I asked Joanna if she'd like to hear it before, let's see what she says before we take them away from her. Would you like to hear it?

Joanna: (shakes head no)

Adult: She says no, so now you can listen to it. Can we listen to your chest (says to Joanna)?

Joanna: Um hmm (nods head yes).

Adult: OK. Jose, can you sit on the chair? On your bottom? (gestures to chair)

Girl: You have to do this (gestures off camera). Do that so Jose could hear your heart.

Boy: I hear it.

Adult: What did you hear?

Boy: Like roadrunner.

Adult: Roadrunner?

Girl: Let me see. (puts on stethoscope and listens) It's like dun dun, dun dun.

Boy: No, I say roadrunner.

Boy: (listening with stethoscope) Like food.

Adult: Sounds like food? What kind of food is inside Joanna?
